THANK YOU TITLE IX
Celebrating 40 Years of Gender Equity Progress at UCSB

Roster of Events:

Monday, October 15, 2012
Event Kick-Off!!
Title IX Forum / Teach-in
“40 Years and Counting: Where Are We and Title IX Today?”
5:15 pm – 7:15 pm
McCune Conference Room, HSSB, 6th Floor

Join UCSB professors, students, administrators and staff as they kick off two weeks of celebrating 40 years of Title IX by discussing the impact the landmark legislation has had on their lives and careers. Enjoy light refreshments and listen to personal stories, followed by a moderated discussion on Title IX’s impact on issues of gender equity in athletics, academics, and campus life. Watch our panel of experts grapple with the question, “It’s been 40 years since Title IX was enacted—what has changed for the better and what do we still struggle to achieve?”

Friday, October 19, 2012
UCSB Women’s Volleyball Game & Title IX Recognition
7:00 pm
“Thunderdome” Events Center
$8 adults/$5 seniors/$5 youth (ages 4-13)

Come support the UCSB women’s volleyball team as they take on Cal State Fullerton. Featuring a special halftime presentation celebrating the 40th Anniversary of Title IX and its impact on collegiate female athletes everywhere, this game is the perfect occasion to show your pride for UCSB women’s athletics. Go Gauchos!

Saturday, October 20, 2012
“Truth Values: One Girl’s Romp Through M.I.T.’s Male Math Maze”
Featuring Gioia De Cari
7:00 pm – 8:30 pm
Campbell Hall
$10

Created as a response to former Harvard President Lawrence Summers' now infamous suggestion that women are less represented than men in the sciences because of innate gender differences, Truth Values: One Girl's Romp Through M.I.T.’s Male Math Maze is a true-life tale that offers a humorous, scathing, insightful and ultimately uplifting look at the challenges of being a professional woman in a male-dominated field. Performed by writer/performer and "recovering mathematician" Gioia De Cari, this award-winning show brings to life more than 30 characters in a hilarious and deeply touching performance.

Sunday, October 21, 2012
Thank You Title IX Women’s Lacrosse Tournament
9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Storke Field

Thirty-Two Middle School, High School and College Girls’ & Women’s Teams compete in this day-long tournament dedicated to 40 years of Title IX helping promote gender equity in athletics. UCSB takes on UCLA at 12 pm on Storke Field #4. Come out to the Fifth Annual Fall Brawl! For more information, go to www.santabarbaratournaments.com

Monday, October 22, 2012
Screening, Patsy Mink: Ahead of the Majority
7:00 pm
MultiCultural Center Theater

Before you see Congresswoman Patsy Mink’s accomplished daughter, Dr. Gwendolyn Mink (2012 UCSB Diversity Lecturer), discuss her mother’s inspiring journey, come learn more about the woman who was a tireless advocate for the landmark Title IX legislation. Patsy Mink: Ahead of the Majority (Bassford, 2009) is a documentary film that explores the struggles and triumphs of America’s first congresswoman of color, described as “A firecracker and a fighter… [who] transformed America’s schools and universities as the co-author and driving force behind Title IX, later renamed the Patsy T. Mink Equal Opportunity in Education Act.”

Tuesday, October 23, 2012
“Title IX: How One Mother Changed the World for Her Daughter and Other Women”
Diversity Lecture Series and Title IX Featured Speaker
Gwendolyn Mink
5:00 pm
MultiCultural Center Theater

Gwendolyn Mink's Diversity Lecture explores the history and future of Title IX. She will discuss her mother's pivotal role in the legislative origins of Title IX and in related legislative struggles for gender equity in education; consider the impacts and limitations of Title IX; and suggest ways to strengthen Title IX and advance its mission. Now an independent scholar, Professor Mink taught at UC Santa Cruz for twenty years and at Smith College for five years. She writes and teaches about gender and poverty in law and social policy.

Wednesday, October 24, 2012
Graduate Student Title IX Forum
3:00 pm
Graduate Student Lounge, MultiCultural Center, 2nd Floor

The Graduate Student Association of UCSB would like to invite you to a discussion on Title IX and its effect on UCSB graduate students. Current and recently graduated students will discuss how Title IX has personally affected their journey in higher education. The influence of Title IX extends past the traditional interpretation of equality in sports for women, as it has allowed women from all walks of life to participate and engage their campus and surrounding communities. Please join us for an afternoon of good conversation.

Thursday, October 25, 2012
“Students Thank Title IX!” Celebration Event
12:00 pm – 2:00 pm
Student Resource Building Patio

Join Student Organizations to learn how Title IX has made our University more active, diverse, and welcoming to all! Get information to join clubs around campus and sign the “Thank You Title IX” banner!

OTHER “THANK YOU TITLE IX” EVENTS ACROSS CAMPUS
Davidson Library: Title IX Exhibition (Oct 15-26, 2012)

GradPost: Special Title IX Features

Title IX Buttons and Temporary Tattoos @ the Women’s Center

Women’s Center: Two Weeks of Title IX Celebration
(Oct 15-26, 2012) Mon–Thurs, 10:00 am – 7:00 pm; Fri, 10:00 am - 5:00 pm