WHERE ARE WE AND TITLE IX TODAY?

Monday, October 15, 2012
5:15 pm – 7:15 pm
McCune Conference Room, HSSB, 6th Floor

A TITLE IX FORUM AND TEACH-IN to kick off a campus-wide celebration of historic 1972 legislation that outlawed all manner of sex discrimination in federally-funded educational institutions and changed the course of women's and girls’ lives and career opportunities.

FEATURING:
- Chancellor Henry Yang
- Executive Vice Chancellor Gene Lucas
- Professor Pat Cohen (History)
- Executive Associate Athletics Director Diane O’Brien
- Professor Janis Ingham (Speech and Hearing Sciences)
- Executive Dean Melvin Oliver
- Professor Aida Hurtado (Chican@ Studies)
- Jenessa Jeppesen, Student Athlete
- Anna Everett, AVC Diversity, Equity & Academic Policy
- Eileen Boris (Feminist Studies)

SPONSORED BY:
Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor
Office of the Associate Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Academic Policy
Office of Equal Opportunity, Sexual Harrassment & Title IX Compliance
With Special Thanks to the Title IX Planning Committee!

THANK YOU
TITLE IX